The Honorable William Casey

Dear Bill:

It was good to see you the other night at dinner for the Vice President.

You will recall that I introduced you to Hillel Weinberg, who is responsible to me in my work as Ranking Minority Member of the Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East, where he serves as Minority Staff Consultant, that is, as minority counsel.

As I mentioned, and as your records will show, Hillel has in the past been offered jobs in the intelligence community which required extensive background checks.

He has, however, only recently been granted interim clearance by the Department of Defense, which governs ordinary clearances for Foreign Affairs Committee. I have only now been able, under our procedures, to ask that he be granted clearance, so that he can be present at briefings by the intelligence community.

A copy of my letter to Chairman Fascell, asking that a request be made for this clearance, is attached. I am certain that Chairman Fascell will be forwarding this request to you, and I am writing to ask that a decision on this matter be expedited.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN A. GILMAN
Member of Congress

The Honorable Dante B. Fascell
Chairman
Committee on Foreign Affairs

Dear Dante:

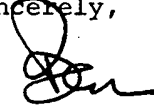

STAT I am writing to ask that you ask the appropriate authorities to commence an investigation leading to the granting of a [redacted] clearance for Hillel Weinberg, Minority Staff Consultant assigned to the Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East.

In addition to his work as the only minority staffer with special responsibility for his geographic area, he will be helping me in other areas requiring access to especially sensitive information, such as POW/MIA and international narcotics matters.

Hillel has been previously cleared for employment with the intelligence community and I anticipate that this request should not place an undue burden on it.

With best wishes,

Sincerely,

BENJAMIN A. GILMAN
Ranking Minority Member
Subcommittee on Europe and the Middle East
